

International Student/Teacher Essay Contest, 2017: The World's Greatest Ethical Challenge

Carnegie Council announces its ninth annual International Essay Contest, open to teachers and students anywhere in the world.

From climate change, to refugees, to terrorism, many of the greatest problems facing us in the 21st century transcend national borders. All involve ethical issues, such as fairness, rights, and responsibilities.

ESSAY TOPIC: In your opinion, what is the greatest ethical challenge facing the world today? What are the ethical issues involved and how can we work together to overcome this problem?

CONTEST REQUIREMENTS:

- Style: Op-ed style (not academic, footnoted papers)
- Length: 1,000 to 1,500 words
- Limit: One entry per person.

WHO IS ELIGIBLE?

- All teachers, at whatever level, are eligible.
- All students, from high school students through graduate students, are eligible.
- Non-students are automatically disqualified.
- Collaborative essays between students and teachers are welcome.
- Previous winners and honorable mentions are not eligible.

HOW TO ENTER:

1. Join the free Global Ethics Network website: www.gloablethicsnetwork.org and click on Contests/ essay contest 2017.

COMPETITION DEADLINE: December 31, 2017

PRIZES: Amazon Gift Certificates

Photo: Dennis Hill \(CC\)

See reverse for details on the UofA contest! >>>

